The thunder storm of Thursday was quite severe. A bolt came down at the Hotel Harlan and, evidently, striking above the house, one part struck the water tank and the other a pine tree across the street. The landlady, Mrs. Weeks, was in the south porch and was severely shocked. Dr. Zanders was called and an equilibrium was soon established, though she has not yet fully recovered. For an instant the porches seemed full of fire, but no damage was done to the main building.

At a county fair out in Kansas a man went up to the tent where some elk were on exhibition and stared wistfully up at the sign.

"I'd like to go in there," he said to the keeper, "but it would be mean to go in without my family, and I can't afford to pay for my wife and seventeen children."

The keeper stared at him in astonishment.

"Are all these your children?" he gasped.

"Every one," said the man.

"You wait a minute," said the keeper. "I'm going to bring the elk out and let them see you all."

When I was teaching in the kindergarten I always tried to impress on my pupils the necessity of neatness. One little girl repeatedly forgot her handkerchief. One day, I said to her, "Use your kerchief." She, as usual, "forgot it." I said, "You did not forget your lunch, did you?" She looked up in great surprise and said, "I can't wipe my nose on an apple, can I?"

"I would lay awake for hours without any apparent cause, or dream terrible dreams which would bring on extreme spells of nervousness. After taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic for awhile I could sleep well, and the nervous spells have left me." MISS ALMA HUG, R. R. No. 4, Canal Dover, Ohio.

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
